- The fund was created as part of North Carolina Arts Council's reprioritization of grants to provide stabilization for artists and organizations since the onset of COVID-19. It is also funded by the Durham Arts Council, Orange County Arts Commission, Alamance Arts and Person County Arts Council.

Narrative

Your Project Narrative should explain your proposed project and how it will have an impact on your career as an artist:

Describe your project and the proposed use of funds.

Explain what this project will enable you to do that you are unable to do now.

Summarize how this project will advance your career or development as an artist.

Narrative

Your proposal needs to be:

- Feasible

Don't propose a project that seems beyond your capacity either in terms of cost, access, or other factors.

- A logical step for you

It should make sense why the workshop tuition, computer, brochure, or new studio you want would be relevant and helpful to you at this point in your career.

- The more specific you can be the better.

Narrative

General Rules of Thumb:

- Use simple, declarative sentences, active voice—and get to the point. Observe the space or page limits.
 - Say what you need to say as efficiently as possible.
- Who, what, when, where, why, and how.
 - If you find, after you've answered the application queries, that you haven't addressed one or more of the questions, you might want to revisit your responses.

Narrative

General Rules of Thumb:

- The narrative is not an artist statement.
Keep your answers focused on the practical needs and outcomes of your project.
- Write under the word limit.
- Ask someone unconnected to the arts to read your application. Their perspective can be valuable in identifying aspects that are unclear or unpersuasive.
- There is an option to link to an audio or video file to supplement your narrative.

Budget

Expenses:

Provide your project expenses, describing what will be paid for using your grant award, and what will be paid for with supplemental funding*. Grant expenses must be cash, but matching funds may include in-kind costs.

Description	Total	Grant	Supplemental Funds
Total Expenses:

Budget

Income:

Provide any project income including personal funds, additional grant funds, or other sources that contribute towards your match amount. List different sources separately. The Total Income amount should equal the Total Expenses amount listed above. Identify in-kind support, as appropriate.

Description	Total	Grant	Supplemental Funds
Total Income:

Budget

- Provide detail.

More detail is better. You can see the difference in the detailed budget on the right:

Example 1

Travel: $600

Example 2

Mileage (200 mi. @ .535):	$107
Lodging (4 nights @ $85):	340
Meals (5 days @ $35):	175
Total:	$622

Budget

- Provide supporting documentation

Getting an estimate from the provider(s) to support the numbers will result in a stronger application.

For most equipment, airfares, and materials costs, prices can be found online. For professional services, you may need to request an estimate.

Always provide documentation for class, workshop, or conference registration costs.

If studying with a specific teacher is part of your proposal, say why and provide documentation of the teacher's credibility.

Budget

- You are not required to spend your own money!

If applicable, show other sources of income.

If you are pursuing or have secured donations from others, especially for more ambitious projects, include that information, as well.

Expense should equal income.

Résumés or Bios

As a rule, they should be:

- Artist résumés

They should focus on your activities as an artist, including exhibitions, performances, readings, screenings, commissions, collections that have acquired your work, publishing history, residencies, articles and reviews of your work, workshops taught or taken, lectures, panels, education, employment, awards, etc.

- Abbreviated

A suggested length is two-to-four pages.

Résumés or Bios

If you have limited experience as an artist, list your existing artistic achievements in your resume and condense your other work and experience into broad background information.

Use this situation to make the case that the grant is especially important towards taking a meaningful step forward in your artistic career.

Work Samples

Strong, high-quality work samples are essential for a successful application.

The first stage in every process is an artistic evaluation, so pay attention to what you choose to submit.
