Five Reasons Your Kid Will Shine at DAC Arts Camps

*Registration
OPEN!*

- 1 The freedom to choose from a variety of camp programs and themes! The DAC offers five camp programs between June 10 and August 23, 2024. Choose from Mini Camp: 1980s | Cultural Camps exploring Jamaica, Finland, Mexico, and the Philippines | Cirque de Danse Camp | fourteen different Teen Intensives, and our Summer Arts Teen Volunteer Program.
- 2 Mentorship from professional teaching artists! The DAC hires local working artists as lead instructors for all camp programs, giving your child the opportunity to be guided by the highest caliber of professionals in their creative fields.
- 3 A quality studio experience in the heart of Downtown Durham! The DAC building is located in the center of town, offering a unique cultural experience connected to the greater community and boasting galleries, professional visual arts, dance, and music studios, and a real theater that young artists will get to work in.
- 4 Performance/Exhibit opportunities! Families and friends will delight in campers showcasing their artistic work in regular gallery exhibits and performances in the theater throughout the whole summer.
- 5 Affordability and accessibility! DAC Arts Camps offer full-day camp experiences at one of the most affordable prices around, with day programs ranging from $140-200 per camper per week. Scholarships are also available covering up to 75% of the tuition of camp for families in need of financial support because the arts are for everyone!
